

What to bring to camp:

- Towels --one for bath and one for beach-- and washcloth
- Bedding: linens/blankets or sleeping bag and a pillow
- Bible --for vespers, morning watch, study – or we have extras in our camp library for campers to use and bring home with them.
- Flashlight --needed for camp fire and possible camp out!!
- Rain Jacket/poncho and Sweatshirt or Jacket
- Swimsuit --Girls: one piece or two-piece that covers the mid-driff keeping modesty in mind Boys: modest swim trunks.
- Close-toed walking/running shoes --a pair and a spare of sturdy footwear for field games, lower camp activities, and rough trails
- Sandals, flip flops, water shoes --for the beach which is a bit rocky, walking to bath houses, and walking in main camp areas.
- Work/play clothes --for a “mission work project” at camp or field games-- something you can get paint on, get dirty and have fun in!
- Camp store money --to deposit at registration. Most campers spend a dollar or two per day.
- A book --for rest time or evening cabin time.
- Hat or cap
- Jeans, long pants, shorts --not toooo short!
- Shirts
- Underclothes, socks, and pajamas
- Toothbrush/toothpaste, soap, shampoo, toiletries
- Non-aerosol spray Sunscreen and non-aerosol spray insect repellent
- Disposable camera for picture-taking
- Guitar, ukulele, or musical instrument to share at vespers or talent show
- Sr. High Campers may bring something a bit dressier for Senior Night Dinner

Presbytery Point Camp recommends that you leave valuables at home. The camp is not responsible for any items that are missing, stolen, or broken. We have had a change in policy regarding cell phones. Please read about this in the Camper Covenant. As you can understand, we are working to develop an electronic device and cellphone arrangement that is respectful to all, and that maintains the focus of our week on the relationships shared at camp.

